

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

RICKIE HILL,

Plaintiff,

V.

DOUGLAS R. RANDS AND AARON
FORD,

Defendants.

Case No.: 2:20-cv-00684-APG-NJK

Order Reversing Magistrate Judge's Order

[ECF Nos. 68, 69]

Plaintiff Rickie Hill moved for an order to show cause to, among other things, enforce a portion of the settlement agreement that resulted in the dismissal of this case. ECF No. 65.

11 The defendants did not respond to the motion. Magistrate Judge Albregts granted it in part and 12 ordered the defendants to file a status report. ECF No. 68. The defendants have now filed an 13 appeal of that order, contending Judge Albregts lacked jurisdiction to enter his order because the 14 case was dismissed. ECF No. 69.

I have reviewed the appeal, Judge Albregts' Order, and the underlying papers. The defendants are correct that this court lacks jurisdiction to enforce the settlement agreement.¹ The order dismissing this case was not conditioned upon satisfaction of the settlement agreement, and the order did not state that this court retained jurisdiction to enforce the settlement agreement. Therefore, the court lacks jurisdiction over Hill's motion.

No case of ours asserts, nor do we think the concept of limited federal jurisdiction permits us to assert, ancillary jurisdiction over any agreement that has as part of its consideration the dismissal of a case before a federal court.

²⁵ ¹ Had the defendants made this argument in an opposition to the motion, it would have saved considerable judicial resources.

2 Even when, as occurred here, the dismissal is pursuant to Rule
3 41(a)(1)[(A)][ii] (which does not by its terms empower a district
4 court to attach conditions to the parties' stipulation of dismissal)
5 we think the court is authorized to embody the settlement contract
6 in its dismissal order (or, what has the same effect, retain 7 jurisdiction over the settlement contract) if the parties agree.
8 Absent such action, however, enforcement of the settlement
9 agreement is for state courts, unless there is some independent
10 basis for federal jurisdiction.

7 Kokkonen v. Guardian Life Ins. Co. of Am., 511 U.S. 375, 380-382 (1994). Judge Albregts'
8 Order is therefore contrary to law so I must vacate it. See Local Rule IB 3-1.

9 I HEREBY ORDER that Magistrate Judge Albregts' Order (ECF No. 68) is vacated.

10 Because the defendants have already filed a status report based upon that Order, no further
11 proceedings are necessary.

12 DATED this 2nd day of August, 2023.
